Dear Mr. Sloan:

In the temporary absence of Mr. Dulles, I would like to acknowledge and thank you for your letter of 20 October and for the enclosed copy of America in the Modern World.

When Mr. Dulles returns to his office, this will be brought to his attention.

Sincerely,

Signed

Assistant to the Director

The Honorable Allen Dulles
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Last June our Press published a small book by D. W. Brogan entitled AMERICA IN THE MODERN WORLD. Mr. Brogan is both a wise and a friendly critic of this country. While his book has had a good press and considerable public acclaim already, we don't believe it is as widely known as it ought to be. We are therefore sending you a copy, under separate cover, with our compliments in the hope that you will find it interesting reading.

Cordially yours,

William Sloane
